Nassau County Museum of Art. Jim Dine: Sculpture

Work by American artist Jim Dine, culled from a sculpture exhibition first organized by New York City's Pace Gallery. Featured in the Nassau County Museum of Art showing are works based on Carlo Collodi's novel, The Adventures of Pinocchio, including sculptures of the title character and a 40-piece print series illustrating Dine's homage to the classic tale. Jim Dine is one of the country's best-known artists. He is regarded as one of the most consistently inventive artists to have emerged in the second half of the 20th century. A painter, sculptor and graphic artist, Dine's art often incorporates images of everyday life, such as tools, rope, shoes, neckties and other articles of clothing. On view in the Main & Second Floor Galleries. One Museum Drive, Roslyn Harbor. 516.484.9337. www.nassaumuseum.org

Nassau County Museum of Art. Rashaad Newsome: Collages & Sculpture

This exhibition features Rashaad Newsome's intensely detailed collages, each surrounded by an exquisitely carved frame. Also on view will be a large carved gate installation. Newsome, one of the most intriguing young artists on the New York contemporary scene, is also a video and performance artist whose work was included in the 2010 Whitney Biennial. His collages blend hip-hop and heraldry, achieving entirely new and individual art forms. On view in the Contemporary Gallery. One Museum Drive, Roslyn Harbor. 516.484.9337. www.nassaumuseum.org

Tilles Center for the Performing Arts. Daedalus Quartet.

Praised by The New Yorker as "a fresh and vital young participant in what is a golden age of American string quartets," the Daedalus Quartet has established itself as a leader among the new generation of string ensembles. In the ten years of its existence the Daedalus Quartet has received plaudits from critics and listeners alike for the security, technical finish, interpretive unity, and sheer gusto of its performances. The New York Times has praised the Daedalus Quartet's "insightful and vibrant" Haydn, the "impressive intensity" of their Beethoven, their "luminous" Berg, and the "riveting focus" of their Dutilleux. The Washington Post in turn has acclaimed their performance of Mendelssohn for its "rockets of blistering virtuosity," while the Houston Chronicle has described the "silvery beauty" of their Schubert and the "magic that hushed the audience" when they played Ravel, the Boston Globe the "finesse and fury" of their Shostakovich, the Toronto Globe and Mail the "thrilling revelation" of their Hindemith, and the Cincinnati Enquirer the "tremendous emotional power" of their Brahms. C. W. Post Campus, L.I.U., Northern Blvd., Brookville. 3:00pm. 516.299.3100. <http://www.tillescenter.org/event.cfm?id=653>
